

K-STATE OPEN HOUSE WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 2010
FROM 9 A.M. TO 3 P.M.

K-State is inviting students and faculty members to attend Kansas State University's All-university Open House.

The program informs high school and community college students and their parents of the unique educational opportunities available at K-State. There will be displays from various Colleges within the university.

Open House features campus and living group tours, musical performers including the Marching Cobras of Kansas City, student life exhibits, and many other events.
