

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY FOR SOPHOMORES ONLY DAYS WILL BE HELD ON APRIL 23-24, 2010

“For Sophomores Only” is designed for high school sophomores and their parents and will feature the following types of information:

Students will learn about making the transition from high school to college life and will participate in activities to identify their personal strengths and skills.

Following the program, students will be given the opportunity to tour the campus and explore what the university has to offer.

Students will interact with current K-State students and discuss student life issues.

Parents will learn about the college admissions process, enrollment, financial aid and scholarships.

Students and parents will be free for most of the day on Saturday to enjoy K-State’s All-University Open House.

Cost: Full program (Fri. and Sat.) $25.00(Does not include lodging). Saturday only program $22.00. No refunds given after April 14th.
