

$2,000 Cash Scholarship

For High School Juniors and Seniors Studying Business, Marketing or Personal Finance

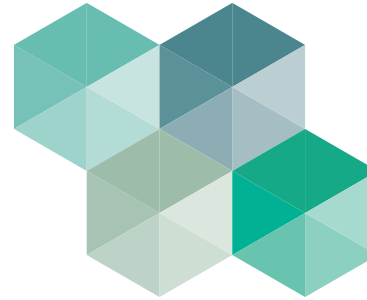

The 8th annual Knowledge Matters Scholarship application process is now open for high school juniors and seniors.

Knowledge Matters, the creators of Virtual Business online simulations for high school students used by thousands of high school students nationwide, is dedicated to teaching high school students the fundamentals of business and personal finance.

To help celebrate high school juniors and seniors interested in business, marketing, and personal finance, Knowledge Matters is again offering a $2,000 scholarship.

Scholarship Nomination Deadline:
April 1, 2017

Final selection will be made by an independent panel of judges. The scholarship money will be disbursed during May 2017.

VIRTUAL BUSINESS
HIGH SCHOOL

Interested students/teachers can submit the Knowledge Matters' scholarship nomination info online here:

<https://knowledgematters.com/about/scholarships/apply.html>

Requirements

To be eligible for nomination by their teachers, students must exhibit excellence in business, marketing or personal finance classes and show interest and accomplishment in the use of technologies in these subjects.

The application process includes a text or Word document from a nominating teacher describing how the nominated student excels in business, marketing or personal finance classes and shows interest and accomplishment in the use of technologies in this subject.

In addition, applying students submit a text or Word document describing how the use of technology has helped them excel within business, marketing or personal finance. Essays should be 500 - 1000 words in length.